MEDICINAL.
When we read of a mother who leaves her newborn babe shivering on a doorstep, unguarded from the elements, and to suffer at the mercy of strangers, we wonder at her cold heart and lack of mother-love. There are other ways than these of exposing a child to a life of suffering. The mother who, through ignorance, neglect, or selfishness, leaves her child to the world, is a mother who makes motherhood possible, brings to the world a sick and puny child, is at the root of the suffering to which it is subjected. If a woman would have healthy, happy children, with bright eyes, she must take proper care of her own body.

One of the best of all medicines for women is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It acts on the system only on the delicate and important organs that bear the burdens of maternity. It makes them strong and healthy, and restores the expectant period to its normal course, easy and almost painless. It cures a robust, healthy new-cumpr and natural nourishment. Over 90,000 women have testified to its merits over their own bodies. All good druggists sell it.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets. If constipation is painful like a toothache, sickness, or a very distressing ailment, the proper remedy would be promptly resorted to, and the long train of disorders for which it is responsible would cease to exist. But constipation is the easiest to neglect, and the most dangerous. A resort to the right remedy is put off from day to day. It is a headache, and some injurious laxative powder that gives but temporary relief is resorted to. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are a pleasant and permanent cure for constipation. They cause no pain and never offend. They are just as good.

ELKTON.
HOTEL ELKTON, Elkton, Va., Aug. 12.—The week just closed has been one of unusual gaiety, even for charming Elkton. A donkey party, a hay ride and a nightly hop being the order of the day and the week was appropriate. It closed by a feast of reason in the lecture delivered by Mr. Jas. Paxton Voorhees, son of the late Senator from Indiana. His subject, "Out of the Past," was handled in a masterly manner.

The Elkton is situated in the beautiful Shenandoah Valley and for rest, recreation and sport the location cannot be surpassed.

The hotel is a model of modern architecture and luxury surrounded by beautiful grounds which have been made to blossom like the rose under the present management and within the last two seasons the improvement in hotel and grounds has been almost magical.

At present there are about a hundred guests from Chicago, Alexandria, Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia, Richmond and other cities. Mr. J. H. Brown, the genial host, is the prince of good fellows, and his motto and that of his able assistants, Mr. Barnes and Mr. Milnes, is "If you don't see what you want ask for it."

The week opened with a brilliant euchre party in which Alexandria as usual showed her speed by running first and second, the woman's prize being won by the winsome Miss Jessie Armstrong, with her charming mother a close second. The men's prize went to Mr. A. W. Armstrong.

The contingent of Washington is most charming, among them the brilliant Mrs. Heber May, Mrs. Judge Key and her most attractive daughters, Madame Renard, of Paris, and Miss Key; Mrs. Wyville, dainty Miss Wyville, always so charmingly gowned; Mrs. J. Walter Robertson, the handsome wife of an "Alexandria boy" who has won name and fame in the garden city of the West; Mr. and Mrs. Bolingbrook Robinson and their delightful daughter, Miss Douglas; Mrs. McGraw and her daughters, Mrs. Ballou and Mrs. Wickerson, whose beautiful voice is another attraction to the springs; Col. and Mrs. Zellman, Mrs. Finch and others.

The three Misses Woolfart are great additions with their music, dancing and general vivacity.

Among the most characteristic and original of the personnel of the Elkton is Master Pete Auger, who carries his 3 years and 2 feet 6 inches with the air and bravado of the Union clubman. Both Master Pete and his mother are much sought after and appreciated.

But Elkton is not an Adamless Eden, Washington furnishes Messrs. Sioussat, Miller, Heber and Harold May, J. Paxton, Chas. Voorhees, Dodge and many married men and confirmed bachelors, who don't count, of course.

Some amateur theatricals are billed for this week and the casts are filled by clever amateur talent. But to enumerate all the pleasant people and attractions would be to write forever, so more anon.

A Valuable Prescription.
Editor Morrison of the Worthington, Ind., "Sun," writes: "You have a valuable prescription in Electric Bitters, and I can cheerfully recommend it for Constipation and Sick Headache, as well as a general system tonic it has no equal." Mrs. Annie Stehle, 2025 Cottage Grove Ave., Chicago, has all run down, could not eat nor digest food, had a backache which never left her, and felt tired and weary, but six bottles of Electric Bitters restored her health and renewed her strength. Prices 50 cents and $1.00. Get a Bottle at E. L. Allen's Drug Store.

For Over Fifty Years
AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhea. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by Druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.
